183 Dear friend

Our mutual friend McKim has just handed me the volume of your writings put out, as a present from you. You may be sure I value it very highly none the less that you were thoughtful enough to send me a copy. I shall thank you by reading it & endeavoring to spread far & wide the great truths it advocates.

I have for some time been intending to write you for some information respecting a present sent to G. Thompson while he has in this country, at the time of our fair (end of 1850). Some thirty persons made up a fund & bought a new bed quilt for G. T. which I was to send to him. I did so with a letter & at the same time a check for $100 from myself.
Neither of which has he even acknowledged!!
The check was drawn to your order & was paid. I have a right to infer that he rec'd the letter. Can you explain?
In great haste
Ed Davis

We have never in better spirits & more anxious that we have but to preserve our former course with earnestness & patience to the glorious triumph which has
